Message from the Executive Director

Dear Friends of Polyphony,

Shana Tova and happy new year! We are very proud to introduce to you Polyphony's new website, logo and tagline, which we believe powerfully demonstrates our mission of tapping into the power of music to enable social transformation in Israel.

With these new tools in hand, Polyphony co-founder Nabeel Abboud-Ashkar and I visited last month with donors and friends in

Americans Visit Polyphony

“I want everyone to go to Nazareth to see what Polyphony is doing. During their performance, the expressions on the children’s faces showed their total commitment to the music... they felt every note they were playing. All of us—musicians and audience members, Jews and Arabs—experienced coming together in a new Dallas, Los Angeles, New York and San Francisco to invite them to help Polyphony grow.

Special thanks are in order to David Myers and Abby Sher in Los Angeles who arranged a luncheon to introduce 16 new people to Polyphony and our wonderful committee in Dallas, headed up by David and Betty Jo Bell, that will host a February benefit concert with special guest David Broza.

We invite you to join us and become a Polyphony Champion! For it is by working together that we will make change happen.

Warmly,
Carrie
